

ARTISTS WITH LEARNING DISABILITIES SHOW OFF THEIR WORK

Adults with learning disabilities will be showing off their artistic talent at a special event on Friday (May 1).

As part of the Brighton Festival, Grace Eyre will be hosting a 'Open House' event at its headquarters in Avondale Road, Hove and throughout May, members of the public will be able to view and even purchase the work of the charity's artists.

On Friday there will be a special, invitation only viewing of the work – which includes photography, painting, sculpture and crafts – for civic officials, volunteers and other VIPs. The artists will also be available to talk about their work and to answer any questions from guests.
